

Junction Street

25. The Fletcher's ask us to pray for the father of one of the girls from their kids club who suffered a severe brain haemorrhage, and is now unable to work. The family are extremely poor. Give thanks that the Fletcher's visa has been extended for another year. Pray for Bow at her new school.

Charlotte Street

26. Pray for the Alpha course as tonight they explore the theme 'How can I resist evil?' 21% of all children in Cumbria are living in poverty, pray for the impact poverty has on people. North Street

27. Pray for Gary Ion who is working with Amari Uganda with logistics and administration. Amari Uganda is a charity that is committed to the rescue, rehabilitation and reconnection of street and other vulnerable children in Uganda back to their families. Pray for the many vulnerable children on the streets of Kampala and the individuals, churches and organisations that minister to their needs. Caldew Street

28. Miriam Westfall asks us to pray that the UK visa application for her co-leaders wife, Kristin, will be accepted so she can join their team in Newcastle. Colmore Street

29. Santa writes 'The Afternoon Tea Ladies requested a regular craft session so they could invite their non-believer friends. These ladies are mostly Russian and Ukrainian and live very busy lives. It will be a challenge to find a time that suits all of them. Pray for time to meet that would also suit the local non-believing ladies.' Blunt Street

30. Pray for Kate as she leads Messy Church this afternoon. The Fletcher's write 'We have just heard that one of our beloved neighbours is being let out of prison early in January! Pray for her as she prepares to return - she will be delighted to be free but returns to a very difficult situation.' Freer Terrace

Prayer Diary November 2019

LOVING

Jesus

SERVING

the community

GROWING

disciples

ST JAMES CARLISLE

1. Today is All Saints Day, when we remember and give thanks to God for the witness of all God's people down through the ages: 'God of holiness, your glory is proclaimed in every age: as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.' Talbot Road
2. Pray for Messy Church taking place this afternoon, and the families attending. Pray for the Street Pastors who every Saturday night provide a listening, caring, helping presence on the streets of Carlisle. Yew Tree Court
3. Pray for our Annual Memorial Service taking place tonight in the Parish Church, especially for those attending who have recently been bereaved. Pray that they may encounter God's love and peace. Empire Road
4. Give thanks to God for the response to our Gift and Pledge Day, and pray that God will continue to provide all that we need as a church to serve him and grow his Kingdom. East Norfolk Street
5. Tonight on the Alpha Course we are exploring the topic 'Why and how do I pray?' Pray for all who attend. East Dale Street
6. Miriam Westfall asks us to pray that Christian students in Newcastle would catch a vision for global mission and have God's compassion for the nations as they consider their summer 2020 plans. Cumberland Court

7. Pray for Ruth as she prepares for the youth weekend away in St John's in the Vale at the end of this month, and for the young people from St James who will be attending. Pray that everyone will have a fun and safe time away together, and that relationships will be deepened with one another and God. Northumberland Street
8. Turkey frequently bombards the border areas of Syria and Iraq, including Christian villages, because of the conflict between Kurdish forces and the Turkish government. This creates fear and often forces local people out of their homes. Pray for an end to this violence and that peace will be restored in these areas. Trafalgar Street
9. Pray that through the combined witness of the churches of the Two Rivers Mission Community we may make Christ known in Carlisle. Pray especially for the Revd Mel Beaven, Methodist Deacon in our mission community, who from Easter 2020 will be working as a tutor at the Queen's Foundation in Birmingham (moving there permanently in August). Pray for our link church of Sola in Norway as they seek to recruit a new youth worker, and for the 75 candidates preparing for confirmation.

Blencowe Street

10. On this Remembrance Sunday we remember those who died in battlefields near and far. We remember and we pray for those who lost, those left behind. We remember and we pray for those who though they survived, suffered in life. And we remember the one who died and rose again, who defeated death. We look forward to the day when he will wipe away every tear from their eyes. We look forward to when there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain for the old order of things has passed away. Lorne Street
11. Almighty father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subjected to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. St James Road
12. Our former intern, Libby is undergoing surgery today, pray that Libby may know the peace of God, that the operation will go smoothly, and she will have a speedy recovery. Pray for the Alpha Course as tonight they explore the theme of 'Why and how should I read the Bible?' Pray for the construction of a new church in the centre of Sola, that God will protect all who work on the building site. St James Avenue

13. Pray for our staff team, Simon, Kate, Andy, Toby and Ruth, and our church wardens Judith and Julie, and all who serve through in the church through its various ministries. Pugin Street
14. "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14 Pray for our nation in a time of great change. Kenmount Place
15. With a week to go before the youth weekend away, pray for Ruth as she makes final preparations. Pray that our young people will respond to the gospel and be bold in inviting their friends to follow Jesus. Clifton Street
16. Pray for the Alpha Day Away taking place today, that those who attend will meet with the living Christ, and lives will be transformed. Colville Terrace
17. Pray for Santa who this month is starting an English Conversational Classes with a mother and her two young daughters. Pray that Santa will be able to "weave" the love of Jesus through these sessions. Colville Street North

18. Pray for the PCC as they meet tonight, and make important decisions relating to the mission and ministry of the church. Pray that Christ will be at the heart of all our decision making. Milbourne Terrace

19. Pray for those attending the Alpha Course as tonight they explore the theme 'How does God guide us?' Johns Place
20. Pray for Elise Fletcher who is very busy with RoyRak getting ready for the Christmas rush. Pray that the women will enjoy the extra excitement and that they will make enough money to keep the good work going! Holme Terrace
21. Pray for those attending Leisurely Lunch today. Pray for wisdom and sensitivity for Santa as she explores opportunities to be involved in Risan Care Home in Montenegro. Bridge Terrace
22. Pray for the Youth Weekend Away which starts tonight. Pray that everyone who attends has a fun, safe and enjoyable time away. Pray for Ruth as she leads sessions exploring the theme of 'Identity'. Shaddongate
23. Pray for those involved in planning services and events between now and Christmas. Pray that we will be able to put Christ into CHRISTMAS. Shaddongate Mill
24. Pray for the ministry of St James amongst children, families, young people and the wider community.